THIS MONTH'S MINISTRY LETTER

When I look out of my window into our garden, it is ablaze with daffodils, crocus and violets. There is blossom on some of our trees, the birds are busy building nests and the pigeons are acting like teenagers!! All of this, is God's promise that the Winter is over and that Spring is once again with us.

Spring is one of the most treasured of the seasons, it is a new start, when new life springs forth from the bare earth and skeletal looking trees gradually dress themselves with their new leaves.

However, amid this beauty, with a sharp pang, I am reminded of how fortunate we are to be here with a lovely garden to peacefully walk around. I think of those poor people in the Ukraine, some of whom have lost everything, including their lives. I am sure, like me, you are praying for this dreadful war to be over, for God to send His peace and compassion. For the Ukraine to be at peace and their enemies scattered.

The response to help for the Ukraine, just in our two small villages has been little short of amazing. The numbers of people willing to open their homes to refugees is astonishing. We all seem to be willing to do whatever we can to alleviate some of the pain that the Ukraine people feel. They obviously love their homeland and can't wait to be able to go back and rebuild their lives. If we can help them do that with our love, then we will have done what God would want us to do.

I am sure that God is working His purpose out and that before long, our prayers will be answered. In Mark's Gospel it says:- "Whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it and it will be yours".

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH Children Learn What They Live

If a child lives with criticism, he learns to condemn.

If a child lives with hostility, he learns how to fight.

If a child lives with ridicule, he learns to be shy.

If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty.

If a child lives with tolerance, he learns to be patient.

If a child lives with encouragement, he learns confidence.

If a child lives with praise, he learns to appreciate.

If a child lives with fairness, he learns justice.

If a child lives with approval, he learns to like himself.

If a child lives with acceptance and friendship, he learns to find love in the world.

The Last Firefox by Lee Newbury

Charles is absolutely terrified of going up to secondary school ..and he's scared of the two boys who are bullying him. He's scared that he doesn't have enough courage ... so how will he be the best big brother to the boy or girl his two dads plan to adopt? And just when things feel particularly overwhelming, he meets a strange character who hands him a firefox to look after. This is the very last Firefox and he is in mortal danger ..where will Charles find his courage to keep him safe?

This is a joy of book. It covers so many topics - transition to secondary school, inclusion, bullying, friendship, courage... all an integral part of the story and treated with sensitive and positive handling. There are some amazing characters - Charles and his friends; the two Dads and of course a little Firefox who is full of mischief and affection . This book has plenty of adventure, danger, a tree house and some great comedy - I loved the scenes in the supermarket when a fire breathing Firefox gets loose ..and the visit of a social worker who is not all she seems...and the book is full of wonderful illustrations.

Aimed at middle grade but go on adults let yourself loose in this beautiful story where you can take on a monster and learn where true courage is.

POETRY*The Lamb* by William Blake

Little lamb, who made thee?
 Dost thou know who made thee,
 Gave thee life, and bade thee feed
 By the stream and o'er the mead.
 Gave thee clothing of delight.
 Softest clothing, woolly bright;
 Gave thee such a tender voice,
 Making all the vales rejoice?
 Little lamb, who made thee?
 Dost thou know who made thee?

Little lamb, I'll tell thee;
 Little lamb, I'll tell thee;
 He is called by thy name,
 For He calls Himself a lamb;
 He is meek, and He is mild,
 He became a little child.
 I a child and thou a lamb.
 We are called by His name.
 Little lamb, God bless thee!
 Little lamb, God bless thee!
