FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Dear Friends,

As I sat down to prepare these words the BBC was reporting that 'The UN [had] declared its highest level of emergency in Iraq as a humanitarian crisis [followed] the rapid advance by Islamic State militants in the north'. According to Kurdish officials, 'the situation in Dohuk province, with 150,000 refugees, was now critical', while, and again according to the BBC, 'Heavy shelling [had] been heard in the rebel-held Ukrainian city of Doetsk as a Russian convoy [approached] the Ukrainian border' and 'Israel and Palestinians [had begun a] tense five-day Gaza truce'. It all makes for rather grim reading, doesn't it? One can only hope and pray that by the time you come to read these words that the pain and suffering caused by each of these respective situations has eased and that there is peace.

As you might expect, the word 'peace' appears many, many times in the Bible. According to my Analytical Concordance to the Holy Bible, a directory of words and phrases, we have references that are suggestive to us of 'rest, ease, security'; 'completeness'; 'unity, concord'; 'to be at, have, or live in peace'; 'holding one's peace'; and 'to make peace'. I wonder how you think and speak of peace? Where do you tend to seek out peace in your life? Are you - or have you been - a peacemaker? What makes for perfect peace? Is peace and fulfilment your goal?

I once attended a course on conflict resolution and the message that I took away from that valuable time was that if your goal in life is to always win and to come out on top, then remember that someone will have to lose. This message still comes to mind from time to time, as do the words of Jesus in the Gospel according to John: 'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid' (14:27). Jesus chooses his words with care; his message is clear for us: in him we may find the gift of peace, a peace that is distinct from our worldly assumptions about peace; an enduring peace.

I do hope that as we move into the month of September the world is beginning to become a more peaceful place. Prayer is needed and, if you have a moment and Internet access, why not visit the website for The Foundation for Relief and Reconciliation in the Middle East (frme.org). Here you will be able to read regular updates from Canon Andrew White, the Vicar of St George's Church in Baghdad, Iraq, and also from Dr Sarah Ahmed. As you read you may well feel inspired by their courage and dedication in working to overcome brokenness and broker unity. You might also notice that the words of Dr Ahmed begin with 'Because, I Love Peace' and end with 'Peace and Love'.

Let us make it our prayer that peace for these people will come and that one day there will be peace in the world. With my prayers and best wishes,

Adrian Smith

Health Crossroads

A couple of friends of mine have just done an "Ironman" (which for the uninitiated is swimming for 2.4 miles, cycling for 112 miles and then running for 26.2 miles!) As you can imagine, they are pretty fit. But the thing that intrigued me was that at every stage of their ordeal, there were teams of masseurs on hand to massage them.

Why, you might think? They'd not injured themselves, they'd not put their backs out. And the answer is that they have massage to PREVENT injuries from happening.

Now scale that down to ordinary folks like you and me. We're not running and swimming for miles but most of us do lead lives where injuries can easily happen - I've lost count of the number of people I've spoken to who have hurt their backs stepping awkwardly from the kerb while crossing the road. The more limber you are the more you are able to prevent accidents from happening. But it's even better than that. Massage makes you supple and flexible so you are able to move more freely - it's not an effort to turn round and look behind you when you're in the car - it's not an effort to get out of the car seat, bend down to pick up letters from the door mat or kneel down to do some weeding in the garden.

So don't wait until something goes wrong or you get an injury. Treat yourself to a sports/remedial massage and you'll think, "Why have I never done this before". I know it's not in our tradition to do things that might seem a bit indulgent. We're more in the tradition of "shutting your gob and turning up the wireless" as I heard a comic once say. But I'm saying, "To hell with all that". Look after your body.

To encourage you, I've put together an offer which is basically 50% off.

You can have a massage for £20.00 or I'll give you 5 massages for only £99.00.

I guarantee that if you take the plunge you'll come out feeling fantastic

So why not give it a go? See our advert in this magazine.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

If I Had My Life to Live Over

by Erma Bombeck (Written after she found out she had cancer)

- I would have talked less and listened more.
- I would have invited friends over to dinner even if the carpet was stained and the sofa faded.
- I would have eaten the popcorn in the "GOOD" living room and worried much less about the dirt when someone wanted to light a fire in the fireplace.
- I would have taken the time to listen to my grandfather ramble about his youth.
- I would never have insisted the car windows be rolled up on a summer day because my hair had just been teased and sprayed.
- I would have burned the pink candle sculpted like a rose before it melted in storage.
- I would have sat on the lawn with my children and not worried about grass stains.
- I would have cried and laughed less while watching television and more while watching life.
- I would have gone to bed when I was sick instead of pretending the earth would go into a holding pattern if I weren't there for the day.
- I would never have bought anything just because it was practical, wouldn't show soil, or was guaranteed to last a lifetime.
- Instead of wishing away nine months of pregnancy, I'd have cherished every moment realising that the wonderment growing inside me was the only chance in life to assist God in a miracle.
- When my kids kissed me impetuously, I would never have said, "Later... Now get washed up for dinner."
- There would have been more "I love you's" and more "I'm sorry's."

But mostly, given another shot at life, I would seize every minute... look at it and really see it... live it... and never give it back.

HACKTHORN & COLD HANWORTH

HACKTHORN C. OF E. PRIMARY SCHOOL

We had quite an emotional end to the summer term this year, what with one of the biggest groups of Y6 leavers saying goodbye - more than half of whom had been with us since reception. Not only that, but for the first time in many, many years, we have been left without a set of twins in school. Some say that this might have been one of the reasons that Mr Oyston decided to retire at the end of this year too, because it would have meant inventing some new visual gags for the annual production!

Incredibly, some 60 pupils and assorted adults managed to plan his leaving 'do' at William Farr, in complete secrecy, including rehearsing songs and shooting videos. Apparently he had no idea what was in store until he was being driven into the car park where he spotted two pupils keeping a lookout near the entrance, but even so, nothing prepared him for the standing ovation he received from the throng which had gathered in the hall to wish him well. A thoroughly entertaining evening was enjoyed by all, particularly when the man himself stood up to tell us his life story to round off proceedings - a stand up routine worthy of Edinburgh!

Our thanks go to William Farr School for allowing us to use their facilities, and particularly the staff at 'Will's Diner' for staying behind to provide refreshments for everyone at the end.

However, for all the impact which Mr O has had during his 20 years at Hackthorn, he has always been the first to point out that has never been a 'one man band' and so the rest of us are now looking forward to exciting times ahead under the guidance of Mrs Appleby who is taking over at the beginning of term.

It will soon be time for parents to start thinking about choosing that all-important first school for children who are due to start in September 2015. We will be organising some activity days soon to give you an opportunity to see our school in action and allow your child to experience what we have to offer at first hand.

It is more important than ever that you come and see yourself what we have to offer, because, for the foreseeable future, the only route into the school will be via reception now that all our other year groups are oversubscribed.

Contact the school on 01673 860295 to arrange a visit or to request a School Brochure, or have a look round our website at www.hackthorn.lincs.sch.uk

NORMANBY & OWMBY

Normanby & Owmbly War Memorial

As some of you may recall, as it was quite a while ago, it was the intention to have the war memorial repaired in time for our annual service on November 11th, especially as this year is the 100th Anniversary of the start of WW1.

In order to carry out these repairs we have had to jump through so many bureaucratic hoops due to the fact that it is in the old church yard but at long last we have been given permission.

The work that is required entails removing the memorial, breaking up the broken concrete base and replacing it. A stone mason has to repair damage to the memorial granite and re assemble it in position, also restoring and straightening up the stone curtilage to the foundation.

We do have funds from the sale of the 2 books that were written about the villagers of Normanby and Owmbly who went to the two World Wars but sadly this is not enough to cover the cost of the work. Work that is needed to restore the memorial to its former glory and which will again serve as a lasting and fitting reminder to the debt we all owe these brave young men.

In order to raise the additional funds required, both Parish Councils are looking into any available grants but we feel that villagers may also want to contribute to the cost of the work, especially in this the Anniversary year of WW1, a war that changed the lives of so many forever.

To that end you will be receiving donation envelopes in the hope that you can see your way to contribute whatever money you can spare towards the repairs. Please place the sealed envelopes in the collection box in Normanby Shop (thank you Ian) or hand them to your Councillor, or the Clerk to Normanby (Nadine Fox).

If you wish to write a cheque, please make payable to Normanby and Owmbly War Memorial Fund.

NORMANBY-BY-SPITAL PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

At the meeting held on 16th July Cllrs A Carter and D Clinch were unable to attend and there were no members of the public present.

Private Lane has been resurfaced properly and it is hoped it will last a long time in good condition. Public footpath No 3 has only been cleared a certain length and the Clerk will ask for the rest of it cut back. It has been requested that the pavements on the bends of Main Street/Front Street and Main Street/Private Lane be resurfaced as they have become a danger to pedestrians. The possibility of a pavement from Manor Cliff to the telephone exchange is more than likely going to happen, though we are still arguing the point.

At long last, the war memorial will be repaired and a new base constructed, before November 11th. There were a lot of obstacles we had to get past, but have managed it. There is still a shortfall of money for these repairs, and, as you will have read on the previous page, we are asking for donations. For residents in Normanby, your envelopes will be collected personally by a Parish Councillor, to save you taking them to the Post Office.

The fees for burials in Owmbly and Normanby Cemetery are being revised.

The notice in the Signpost and the notices on the cemetery gates seem to have stopped the gates being opened inwards - most of the time. Will those who open the big gates inwards please stop as, apart from damaging the post, it is most disrespectful. As is - those who walk their dogs through the cemetery, will you please, if your dog fouls, clear it up. This goes for any pavements or grass verges in the village. Please clear up the mess if your dog fouls.

Nadine Fox (Clerk)

GLENTHAM & CAENBY

GLENTHAM PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

NOTES ON COUNCIL MEETING HELD ON 3rd JULY 2014

Grass cutting was a subject well aired at the meeting; the cuttings were being left lying in gutters, causing potential drain blockages and looking unsightly. The Council's grass cutter has undertaken to collect them after each trim and will take them to the nearest disposal point. Other aspects of the appearance of the village of Glentham were discussed, involving car park maintenance and tree trimming, all of which are being addressed by the Council.

The condition of roads in the parish is causing concern and the County Council's Highways department has been asked to rectify subsidence and potholes along Bishop Norton Road, also to resurface the A631 throughout the parish, also to attend to Barff Lane which is becoming seriously unfit for users.

Many thanks to Roy at The Crown Inn for arranging a fundraising night on 9th July in aid of the Glentham Defibrillator Fund. Three live acts volunteered their services free, and there was a buffet and a raffle. Overall, £200 was raised on the night, thanks to Roy and his team for all their hard work and to everyone who gave their support on the night.

Vacancy. At the time of writing, a vacancy exists for a Councillor; please contact any Councillor or the Clerk if you are interested in making a difference to your community.

Finally, the Council gives a warm welcome to the new Parish Clerk Sue Aikman in this challenging and interesting role. We all wish her every success.

Dates of next meeting

The next meeting will be held on 4th September at 7.30pm in Glentham Village Hall. You are welcome to come and observe or to have your say.

WELTON HEALTH CENTRE NEWS

We have received several notifications from patients relating to 'phone calls from individuals purporting to have connections with the surgery and asking for answers to medically related queries. Please be reassured the doctors and staff will always introduce themselves and explain the reason we are calling and if you are in any doubt as to the authenticity of the caller, we would prefer that you decline to disclose information and call the surgery telephone number to confirm any details.

Reminder to patients to ensure that all polio diphtheria and tetanus vaccinations are up to date - even if only travelling to Europe - please ask at reception if not sure about your immunity.

We are keen to promote our smoking cessation services - please ask at reception if you wish to take advantage of this - appointments are available at various times including Monday evenings.

'Flu vaccines are expected in the practice in the middle of September and appointments will be available as soon as they arrive. In addition we are holding a Saturday morning drop in session on Saturday 27th September 9.00am - 11.30am. If you are in the "at risk" group please come in as early as possible to maximise the benefit - if unsure, check with reception staff. If you normally have the vaccination please don't wait to be invited ! This year children aged 2 - 4 years old are included in the "at risk " group - the rationale being that younger children spread the infection quickly and by treating them this helps to prevent the spread. Children are given a nasal spray, not an injection.

If you have not yet signed up for online ordering of prescriptions, please do so as soon as possible. Those using the original system of ordering prescriptions via the website will not be able to use this after 30th September - the latest system gives each person a password and enables them to go directly to their own record and select the authorised repeats to order and the system is a lot safer and slicker to use. Forms to sign up for this are available on the Practice website or from reception or dispensary.

Last month 21.5 hrs of appointments were booked and not kept - 42 doctors and 58 nursing. Please let us know if you are not able to use your appointment so that others can do so.

WELTON PATIENT AND DOCTORS ASSOCIATION

Tickets for the PDA photography evening, being held on Thursday 18th Sept in Welton Village Hall starting at 7.30pm, are selling well. Don't leave it to the last minute and be disappointed! They can be purchased, priced £5 to include light refreshments in the interval, from myself (Welton 862570), Roy Minnitt (Welton 860980) or from the Health Centre dispensary. The illustrated talk given by Clive Minnitt (www.minnitt.co.uk) is entitled The Lighter Side of Photography. Whatever your level of photographic knowledge this is an evening I am sure you will enjoy. Clive is an excellent speaker both humorous and informative and if this still leaves you undecided, there will be delicious homemade cakes during the interval!

We had our 1st PDA Autumn Fayre planning meeting on 7th August and decisions were made as to which stalls and attractions we would include this year. There will be all the usual games, tombola, raffle, cake stall, books and bric a brac plus the popular 'shooting gallery'. We are also planning a PDA craft stall with crafts supplied by PDA committee members and also kindly provided by some of the patients. An added attraction for the children will be a balloon modeller who, I am told, will be dressed in an interesting disguise! The date for this event is Saturday 18th October in Welton Village Hall. There are, at the time of writing, still a few tables available for hire priced £5. We are as usual looking for a good mix of sale items so please call Roy Minnitt (860980) to express interest in hiring a table. Unfortunately we won't be able to take bookings from anyone wishing to sell cakes or food items.

We are also looking for bric a brac, books, tombola items, in date grocery items, anything in a bottle or glass and wine for the wine or water game. We will also be asking for cakes on the day. Please turn out your cupboards and drawers and give what you can.

If anyone can offer any of the above, please give me a call on 862570 and I can arrange collection if necessary. If any local business owners would like to offer a raffle prize it would be much appreciated.

Finally, I have been asked to remind everyone who uses the transport scheme that we are not a taxi service and as such our drivers do not carry large amounts of change. Twice during August, to my knowledge, a driver was given a large denomination note for a relatively short journey. This causes embarrassment for the driver and possibly for the passenger as well. The charge per mile, to all appointments other than to the Health Centre, is 35p so please bear that in mind before your driver arrives.
