THIS MONTH'S MINISTRY TEAM LETTER

We often become complacent over familiar things. And familiar words. As somebody who attends the Church of England I find myself reciting the words of the service without thinking of their meaning. It's actually quite hard to concentrate through a whole service and retain the awareness that we are talking to the great God who created the cosmos. So I have rewritten the Lord's prayer. And I'd like to invite you to speak these different words once a day for a week to see if they bring a deeper meaning to your connection with God.

Abba Father in heaven,

May your name be Holy, revered, and not taken in vain

May your Kingdom come - come soon please, Lord Jesus.

Your will be done on earth exactly like it is in heaven through us and all people.

Give us today the food everybody needs.

Forgive us our failings just as we forgive others for their failings.

Lead us away from temptation - keep us holy and be with us when we are tempted.

Deliver everyone of us from all that is evil, especially this virus.

We look at the stars and know you are the greatest there can ever be - yours is the kingdom of the whole universe, all the power beyond our imagination and, how magnificent is your glory!

Thank you, Lord.

Amen

John Beverley

HACKTHORN & COLD HANWORTH

HACKTHORN C. OF E. PRIMARY SCHOOL

Each year we compile an end of year Academic Review which reflects on the year's achievements. This year, despite interruptions to learning, caused once again by COVID, all pupils made good progress, but we were particularly proud of our Y6 pupils who performed extremely well in their SATs. This is due to the fantastic support from our parents and the dedication of our hard-working staff who always go 'the extra mile.'

The review, which can be found on our website, contains wonderful images of happy children participating in a wide range of experiences and learning opportunities...school trips, World Book Day activities, our Queen's Platinum Jubilee event, after school clubs, productions, fundraising events etc. Click on the Latest News link on our website homepage to see for yourself! Unprecedented temperatures challenged us during the final week of school. However, we relaxed our uniform policy and staff adjusted planning to make life a bit more bearable. Children (and staff) completed their DT sewing projects outside in the shade or worked while cooling their feet in water trays. Some of the children were a little shocked when they first dipped their feet in!

We still have a vacancy for a midday supervisor. Please contact the school if you would be interested in finding out more about this position.

It won't be long before we'll be back at school and getting to know our new Reception pupils. It's also at this time of year that we start booking in visits for pupils who will be joining us in September 2023! If you have a child who fits into this category, contact us on 01673 860295 to arrange a visit to find out what the 'Hackthorn way' is all about.

ST PETER'S CHURCH, GLENTHAM

Continuing thanks for those supporting the church through the West Lindsey community lottery. There were 51 winners in the 4 weeks up to the 13th August and one of those is a supporter of the church. The money raised goes towards the running costs and repair costs of the church, which are considerable. Many thanks also to those who help look after the church to the best of their abilities. Without such support from those mentioned the church would eventually close.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

Be Like a River

“A river never passes the same place twice,” says a philosopher. “Life is like a river,” says another philosopher, and we draw the conclusion that this is the metaphor that comes closest to the meaning of life. Consequently, it is always good to remember during all the year to come:

A] We are always doing things for the first time. While we move between our source (birth) to our destination (death), the landscape will always be new. We should face these novelties with joy, not with fear – because it is useless to fear what cannot be avoided. A river never stops running.

B] In a valley we walk slower. When everything around us becomes easier, the waters grow calm, we become more open, fuller and more generous.

C] Our banks are always fertile. Vegetation only grows where there is water. Whoever comes into contact with us needs to understand that we are there to give the thirsty something to drink.

D] Stones should be avoided. It is obvious that water is stronger than granite, but it takes time for this to happen. It is no good letting yourself be overcome by stronger obstacles, or trying to fight against them – that is a useless waste of energy. It is best to understand where the way out is, and then move forward.

E] Hollows call for patience. All of a sudden the river enters a sort of hole and stops running as joyfully as before. At such moments the only way out is to count on the help of time. When the right moment comes the hollow fills up and the water can flow ahead. In the place of the ugly, lifeless hole there now stands a lake that others can contemplate with joy.

F] We are one. We were born in a place that was meant for us, which will always keep us supplied with enough water so that when confronted with obstacles or depression we have the necessary patience or strength to move forward. We begin our course in a soft and fragile manner, where even a simple leaf can stop us. Nevertheless, as we respect the mystery of the source that gave us life, and trust in eternal wisdom, little by little we gain all that we need to pursue our path.

G] Although we are one, soon we shall be many. As we travel on, the waters of other springs come closer, because that is the best path to follow. Then we are no longer just one, but many – and there comes a moment when we feel lost. However, “all rivers flow to the sea.” It is impossible to remain in our solitude, no matter how romantic that may seem. When we accept the inevitable encounter with other springs, we eventually understand that this makes us much stronger, we get around obstacles or fill in the hollows in far less time and with greater ease.

H] We are a means of transportation. Of leaves, boats, ideas. May our waters always be generous, may we always be able to carry ahead everything or everyone that needs our help.

I] We are a source of inspiration. And so, let us leave the final words to the Brazilian poet, Manuel Bandeira:

*“To be like a river that flows
silent through the night, not fearing the darkness and reflecting any stars high in the sky.”*

SURROUNDING AREAS

WELTON VILLAGE LIBRARY AND COMMUNITY HUB

Based at Manor Park, Hackthorn Road Welton LN2 3PA

Our opening hours are Monday: 12noon to 5pm, Tuesday: 9:30am to 2:30pm, Wednesday & Saturday: 10am to 12 noon (excluding Bank and Public Holidays)

We hope you all have had a chance to enjoy a book in the summer weather, however now as the reality of the autumn and the daunting prospect of increased fuel bills move ever closer please remember how much the library can save you and your family and friends. Spread the word - the library is a free community resource that is easy to join, books that cost pounds in the shop are free to borrow, are easy to renew either on line or in person if you need a bit more time to finish, and you can borrow up to thirty at a time!

Our ever popular hub talk returns on Tuesday 20th September at 2pm and this time we have gone for something a bit different, we have a representative from Jerry Green Dog Rescue who will give advice on dog nutrition as well as outlining their dog rescue service. Given the ever increasing popularity of dog ownership this talk should be of interest to many local people whether they already own "man's best friend" or are considering giving a dog a loving home. Admission is free, library membership is not required but we will be happy to arrange if you ask. Please note that unfortunately dogs are not allowed in the pavilion with the exception of assistance dogs.

Our book sale also returns on Saturday 17th September from 10am until noon. We can now again receive new book donations but please note we can only accept novels and children's books due to limited storage space.

We will be holding a Macmillan Coffee Event on Monday 10th October and will be grateful for any donations in advance for our tombola, which please drop into the Parish Council Office.

Last, but by no means least, we have received our first book reviews from library users which will be published here as and when space allows, we welcome reviews and recommendations to help others find books they may enjoy.

Events and the regular opening hours we look to maintain are totally dependent upon us having sufficient volunteers available. If you are interested in finding details about how to help us provide this valuable community service please call in at the library for a chat, contact us via our Facebook or Instagram page or email at clerk@welton-by-lincoln-pc.gov.uk

Hello everyone,

AN APPEAL FROM THE PDA FOR COMMITTEE MEMBERS AND DRIVERS

We are still looking for new Committee members and for drivers, with a few hours to spare, to join our voluntary transport scheme. It's not too late to express interest and to learn more about what is involved. Our next committee meeting is on 1st Sept at 7.30pm in the Health Centre. This will be the last meeting prior to the AGM on Thurs 13th October anyone interested in joining the Committee can come along on 1st Sept, with no obligation, to find out what we are all about.

<https://www.weltonsurgery.co.uk/patient-group/about-our-pda/>

The date of the Autumn Fayre is rapidly approaching and we are looking for donations of tombola items, bottles for the bottle stall (these don't have to be alcoholic) just anything in a bottle from water to whisky and all things in between and cakes for the cake stall. Collection can be arranged or donations can be left at the Health Centre reception.

There are a few tables left to hire for £10 each if anyone would like to sell their own items. Anything except cakes as we have our own cake stall

Raffle tickets for our Christmas Draw are now available from all drivers and from Welton Paper Shop and Welton Pet Food Store. Tickets are £1 each or £5 for a book.

Finally, an unusual request. Does anyone have any Damsons surplus to requirements? One of my lovely drivers makes jam to sell at PDA events and would love to make some damson jam for us. Please let me know if you have any to spare. Thank you in advance.

Please all take care of yourselves and each other.

Any further information on any of the above don't hesitate to give me a call on 862570.

E-SCOOTERS - are they legal?

It is 'illegal' to use them on public roads, including pavements. The only exception to this is where there are government trials ongoing, with a rental scheme in some areas such as town centres. These schemes have tight restrictions - I can confirm that Lincolnshire is not included in any trials.

More information can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/e-scooter-trials-guidance-for-users>

E-Scooters can only be used on private land with the consent of the landowner, the landowner would need to have Public Liability Insurance to give consent for their land to be used for this use.

Where it is deemed appropriate by any Officer/PCSO your e-scooter can be seized by way of S165 powers (SOCAP). Users of e-scooters are subject to normal Road Traffic Legislation, including where they are causing ASB, Sect 59 of the Police Reform Act. This could result in fines and points on current driving licence or points on what is called a 'ghost licence' for those people not yet with a driving licence. This can make it very expensive for new drivers/riders.

Please don't waste your money buying expensive e-scooters that cannot be used in this area. Please help us to keep everyone safe and report anyone using e-scooters by calling 101

Thank you

To report a crime, please call 101. If it is urgent, please call 999. If you would like to pass information anonymously, please call Crime Stoppers on 0800 555 111.

Welton Village Library Book Review

A copy of the book can be ordered for collection at Welton Library.

Code Name Bananas by David Walliams

I would rate this book 4.5 stars and that's because, like most David Walliams books, it is full of comedy, drama and most of all fun but it lacks an element of surprise and excitement in parts of the book. I particularly liked this book because it was about the history of England as it brings it to life in a fun, fresh way that really livens up the book but also history in general.

This book is about WW2 and England during the blitz, its set in wartime London and the main character is a school child called Eric and his best friend Gertrude who is a gorilla at London Zoo and in a suspenseful, busy drama they go on an adventure that takes them into the air with dangerous consequences.

I would recommend this book to 5 year olds through to pre teens because it is interesting to know about the history and in a way that will help a child or teen to understand the complicated aspect of WW2 and for 5 year olds it's a fun way for them to learn to read!

POETRY

From a Railway Carriage by Robert Louis Stephenson

Faster than fairies, faster than witches,
Bridges and houses, hedges and ditches;
And charging along like troops in a battle,
All through the meadows, the horses and cattle;
All of the sights of the hill and the plain
Fly as thick as driving rain;
And ever again, in the wink of an eye,
Painted stations whistle by.

Here is a child who clambers and scrambles,
All by himself and gathering brambles;
Here is a tramp who stands and gazes;
And there is the green for stringing the daisies!
Here is a cart run away in the road
Lumping along with man and load;
And here is a mill, and there is a river:
Each a glimpse and gone forever.
