SEPTEMBER'S LETTER FROM THE MINISTRY TEAM

Before writing a Ministry Team Letter for Signpost, I usually have a number of ideas or themes in my mind that eventually evolve, over time, into the printed version. Today it is different. On Monday 30 July, news outlets were reporting on the horrific attack and stabbing of children and adults who were enjoying a happy, carefree dance class in Southport. For two weeks the news was dominated by reports and details about what happened during a few brief minutes that tragically ended the lives of three beautiful children and left other children and adults critically injured.

Journalists arrived quickly on the scene and we saw and heard from people in the local community who were horrified by what had happened. When interviewed on camera, eyewitnesses could not speak about what had happened. Some people used the same words; horrific, horrendous, unbelievable. It was clear that people who were nearby and had witnessed what had happened were traumatised. Words that we use in our everyday vocabulary were inadequate to express feelings of shock, grief and helplessness with one bystander summoning up what had been witnessed; "nobody can believe it; how do you even comprehend what has happened?" Within hours friends, neighbours and people from the local community began to bring flowers; children laid down teddy bears and candles were lit near the street where the attacks took place. It was as if people needed a place to go to where they could think, pray and cry. This they did in silence.

Following on from this tragedy we learned of riots where it appears that angry mobs, inflamed by postings on social media, used their words and actions to incite feelings of hatred, intolerance and prejudice. This they did in anger.

How do we respond when we are "lost for words? Communities in the towns and cities where riots took place expressed their sorrow and anger in practical ways. Churches and Community Centres opened their doors giving quiet spaces to those who needed to find a place of peace, love, compassion and prayer. Groups of people came together to sweep away debris, to replace windows and rebuild walls. Someone set up a "Just Giving "page in the hope of raising £100, but this amount quickly grew to over £1000 which will be shared between local communities where properties were damaged in the riots.

When our lives are turned upside down by the shock of something that happens unexpectedly, we too can be "lost for words." In these circumstances people of faith may pray using a familiar prayer such as "The Lord's Prayer" on behalf of themselves or others. People of no faith may turn to stillness and mindfulness.

When you receive this edition of Signpost, in early September, many of the flowers laid in memory of Alice, Elsie Dot and Bebe will have wilted and been removed. The initial shock and horror of the attacks will have subsided. People will again be able to find words to express their feelings. But for many, especially the parents and family of Alice, Elsie Dot and Bebe, the pain and grief may never go away and they will continue to be lost for words, so let us all speak for them by keeping them in our thoughts and prayers.

Anne Hunter

"I forgive people but that doesn't mean I accept their behaviour or trust them.
I forgive them for me, so I can let go and move on with my life."

Major Roofing Project for St Michael & All Angels Church, Hackthorn

A major project is to begin in mid-September to re-slate the nave and north aisle roofs of the church. Rain leaking in has resulted in damage to the historic organ so the re-roofing is needed as a matter of urgency. The work is projected to cost some £110,000 and we are fortunate to have secured grants of £20,000 from Marshall's Charity and £10,000 from the National Churches Trust on behalf of the Wolfson Foundation to help with this vital repair work.

The building work will mean that unfortunately our church will be closed for the duration of the project, a period of about 3 months, during which time our congregation will join and support the other churches in Owmbly Group. We very much hope to be able to resume services in December.

At St Michael & All Angels, Hackthorn we are so grateful to the National Churches Trust and Marshall's Charity for the grants towards the cost of the urgent repairs needed to make the roof watertight. We work hard to keep our lovely church welcoming and well cared for - having a leaking roof has made this very challenging!

Such a large project is extremely daunting but being able to carry out the much needed repair with the help of these grants will ensure the future of the building that means so much to so many. When the building is watertight again, we shall work towards restoring the internal decoration which has been impacted by the leaks and begin to address the damage that has been done to our historic organ. As stewards of this significant building, we want to do our best to ensure its future as a place of worship and an important focal point in our community. Once again, we are very grateful to the National Churches Trust and Marshall's Charity for this support.

Newsletter for September 2024

The last two months have been hectic with various competitions such as the Euros 2024, Wimbledon, the Summer Olympics, G.C.S.E. and A-level results plus a General Election. Perhaps you find the excitement stimulating or maybe you'd prefer a period of calm to reflect on whether or not you'd like to try something new or continue with the things you already enjoy. There's no competition to be best at Lindsey u3a. We are part of an international organisation providing educational and social opportunities for retired and semi-retired people, typically aged 50 and over although there are no age limits. u3a is non-political, non-religious and no educational or sporting qualifications are required to be a member.

Lindsey u3a meets at Welton Village Hall usually on the first Thursday of the month. You are invited with no obligation to one of our meetings. Doors open at 9.45am for tea/coffee followed by a speaker at 10.30am. If you decide to come along for a look, tell someone on reception you are new and one of our friendly greeters will show you round and answer any questions.

On 5th September a popular speaker Horace Liberty will make a return appearance talking about John Betjeman and his connections to Lincolnshire. Philip Caine will join us on 3rd October with an interesting, humorous and inspirational account of his career "From Barrow to Baghdad".

We offer various interest groups run by members for members. Check out our website lindseyu3a.org.uk to see if anything appeals to you.

u3a members can also join various online talks, workshops and courses. You can find out more from www.u3a.org.uk

If you can't come to one of our general meetings you could join us at the 'Gardeners' Retreat' tearoom at Scothern Nurseries for a cuppa and a chat at 10.15am on the fourth Thursday of the month. The next coffee morning will take place on 26th September. Whether you're a newcomer wanting to know more about Lindsey u3a or if you're already a member and just fancy a cuppa, maybe a scone and a chat, do come along. Everyone is welcome.

Everything you need to know about Lindsey u3a can be found on our website lindseyu3a.org.uk. You will find a comprehensive list of our interest groups, where and when they meet plus news about visits of local interest or theatre visits, lunches and holidays arranged by members for members.

Should you require any further information about Lindsey u3a please do not hesitate to contact me - Mandy Murphy. Email: mandy.murphy1396@gmail.com Tel: 01673 565295

WELTON VILLAGE LIBRARY AND COMMUNITY HUB

Based at Manor Park, Hackthorn Road Welton LN2 3PA

Our opening hours are Monday: 12noon to 5pm, Tuesday: 9:30am to 2:30pm, Wednesday & Saturday: 10am to 12 noon

What an exciting time we had in August in the library! The month saw lots of children coming with their families to be part of the Summer Reading Challenge, some were already enthusiastic readers whilst others were just setting out, with all hopefully on their lifelong journey of enjoying books. The challenge finishes as the schools return and we will then be in contact with those who read all 6 books. That may take a few weeks but rest assured we will be arranging presentations at local school assemblies or at the library for pre school children and others who don't attend a local school. We will also be announcing the winners of our various colouring and 'design a book cover' competitions, again we will be in touch re these, and updates will be made on our Facebook page.

We had a fantastic archaeology event for six to ten year olds which the participants really enjoyed as they found artefacts in the sand and soil, washing identifying and piecing together. We will repeat this event in October and confirm a date in next month's report.

Events this month see us continuing our weekly storytime which has been a great success with local parents, carers and youngsters. These are held each Tuesday at 9:30am, just come along and let the young ones enjoy, as we move into school term time we are anticipating lots of pre-school interest!

We have a storytime and craft event for children of all ages on Saturday 14th September starting at 10:30am celebrating the birth week of Roald Dahl with the intriguing subject 'James and the Giant Bugs'. What will volunteer crafter Avril think up this time?

Finally the welcome return of our Community Hub talks, on Tuesday 24th September at 2pm when we have local expert Brian Holman speaking on an 'Introduction to Herbs'. As always everyone is welcome, free admission with a retiring collection for library and community hub funds.

Mike Hubbert - Library Volunteer Coordinator
